

SEEK $1,000,000 TO PUSH JEWISH RELIGIOUS WORK

Plea Is Made to Union of Orthodox Congregations Meeting Here.

Announcement has been made that $1,000,000 will be raised to carry on religious reconstruction work at a dinner given to the delegates to the Reconstruction Convention of the Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America. The dinner, which was given by the orthodox rabbis of the city at the Young Women's Hebrew Association, was attended by about 250 persons.

The raising of the fund is to begin at once. The present Reconstruction Convention, which is being held at Ohav Zedek Synagogue, No. 14 West 116th Street, is the first that has been called in four years. Prominent Jews, delegates from twenty States, are attending.

At the conference just held Morris Engelman, Financial Secretary of the Central Relief Committee, declared that American Jewry is facing its biggest task, that of helping the Jews of other countries who are looking to the United States for aid. He expressed the hope that Jews in America would give $100,000,000 to care for the refugees in Europe. Mr. Engelman, who spent three months in Holland as a special commissioner for the Joint Distribution Committee, plans to visit every large city in the country in the effort to arouse Jews to the realization of the need for reconstruction work.

Harry Fishel announced that the Jewish War Relief Fund had received directly from patrons in this country $5,220,305, and that of the amount only 2 per cent. was charged for collection. He made a strong appeal for the support of Jewish relief work and stated that 4,000 commissioners are to be placed in 4,000 cities, towns and villages in the country. A plea for an increase in salaries of rabbis was another feature of the conference. It will be taken up at to-day's session.
